

GenCyber Teachers' Workshop for Teaching Cybersecurity June 4-8 & 18, 2018 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Objectives

- Train teachers of the next generation of cyber stars through hands-on learning
- Improve teaching methods for delivering cybersecurity content in 7-12 curricula
- Support the growth of the next generation of cybersecurity experts for the nation

Program Offered by

TSYS School of Computer Science
Columbus State University
4225 University Avenue
Columbus, GA 31907

Benefits

- Learn and enhance knowledge and skills in cybersecurity through hands-on labs
- Receive a complete set of teaching materials for high/middle school cybersecurity courses
- Receive cybersecurity training certificates
- Receive $600 stipend, free lunches and mileage reimbursement
- All activities sponsored by an NSA federal grant

Contacts

Dr. Lixin Wang
wang_lixin@columbusstate.edu
(706) 507-8170

Dr. Yesem Peker
peker_yesem@columbusstate.edu
(706) 507-8170

Or Apply Online

<https://goo.gl/forms/8XLnfKaaaXo49Bw23>

Who Can Apply

- High & middle school teachers. Preference will be given to local teachers in Columbus & Surrounding Area